Taunton

In Taunton, there are numerous galleries featuring local artists, sculptures, wood turners, textiles and glass – visit the Tourist Information Centre for more details.

Take bus 51 towards Athelney (bus stop in Castle Way, opposite Mecca bingo) leave the bus at the Willows & Wetlands Centre, Stoke St Gregory (Monday to Saturday only)

NB: Last bus back from Stoke St Gregory is 18.25 (Mon-Fri) / 16.55 (Sat)

At the Willows and Wetlands Centre

you will find a shop, exhibition, museum, video, guided tour, courtyard tea room and Windmill Hill Walk. Stoke St Gregory is a small village with a church, shops and two pubs.

From Stoke St Gregory, you can catch the return bus to Taunton (number 51), passing through North Curry where you may wish to stop. This is a pretty village, with a few shops, pub and coffee shop; the imposing Parish Church of St. Peter and St. Paul, known as the “Cathedral of the Moors”, dominates the northern side of the village and you can also visit the RSPB Sanctuary at West Sedgemoor nearby.

Did you know?
Legend has it that Alfred, King of Wessex 871-99 burnt the cakes at Athelney.

Did you know?

Willow has been used for coffins, cricket bats, coracles, charcoal, Bearskin caps, sculpture as well as the more traditional baskets and furniture.

Burrow Mump and Walks

Alternatively, from the Willows and Wetlands Centre, walk approximately 7 miles on the Parrett Trail circular route to climb Burrow Mump - here you can take in some stunning panoramic views of the Somerset Levels and Moors before returning along the river bank to Stathe and on to Stoke St Gregory.

Return to Taunton for an evening at the Brewhouse theatre.
